

Born to Drum What to Bring

If you are camping or staying in the Dorm: Bring a sleeping bag or linens , blanket, pillow , towel and washcloth-- Sheets and blankets are not provided at the camp

If you are staying in a semi-private or private room: linens, blanket, and pillow, washcloth and towel are provided.

Weather: According to the conference center information, "The weather varies greatly at the Ranch at all times of the year. Be prepared for both hot, sunny California days and cool, foggy Coastal conditions. Bring both your sweater and shorts!"

- Your drum(s) or percussion instrument(s)!
- Tape recorder and tapes or other recording device with extra batteries,
- A notebook or journal
- Tape or band aids for your fingers – plain white adhesive is good.
- We will have several altars in the main room; you are invited to bring photos of departed loved ones for the ancestor altar and also sacred items for the other altar. If you do, please remember to take your items from the altars before you leave!
- If you would like to participate in gifting to Jeannette Anglin and the Federated Indians of Graton Rancheria, there will be a basket at registration where you can place a small gift.
- You may want to bring some material to decorate your room or to make your bunk more private. You might also want to bring a piece of foam to make your bunk more comfortable.
- Snacks for quick energy between classes
- Refillable water bottle

- Prescription Medications
- Pajamas
- Towel and wash cloth
- Toiletries, Soap/shampoo
- Earplugs
- Sunscreen (#15 +)
- Flashlight
- Changes of clothes
- Sturdy shoes for hiking
- Warm jacket
- Raincoat
- Day Pack
- Bathing suit for swimming in Turtle Pond!
- Alarm clock for waking up on time and watches to keep track of class time schedules throughout the day.
- Still Camera (no videos please)
- If you are hiking, extra shoes and socks
- Quarters and soap for laundry
- Change or dollar bills for vending machines
- Cash or checkbook for Marketplace items (see below)

See class descriptions for teachers' suggestions about instruments to bring to classes.

Walker Creek Ranch and Born to Drum assume no responsibility for loss of or damage to personal property. Please do not bring unnecessary items of value.

You may want to carry with you or lock in your car any valuables that you must bring.

Teacher CDs, T-Shirts and Marketplace--Our faculty are invited to bring CDs which we will be sold at the marketplace. We will have T-Shirts, scoop-necked shirts, tank tops, and sweatshirts with our beautiful logo for sale. There will also be a marketplace including goods and body work. So you may want to bring some cash or your check book as well!